Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray. Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Daniel 12:1-3

The Lord spoke to Daniel in a vision and said, "At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever."

At the conclusion the People respond, "Thanks be to God."

The Choir sings

Psalm 16 Conserva me, Domine

Chant: Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you;
 I have said to the Lord, "You are my Lord, my good above all other."
 All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, upon those who are noble among the people.
 But those who run after other gods shall have their troubles multiplied.

Their libations of blood I will not offer, nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.
O Lord, you are my portion and my cup; it is you who uphold my lot.
My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me, night after night.
I have set the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; my body also shall rest in hope.
For you will not abandon me to the grave, nor let your holy one see the Pit.
You will show me the path of life;
in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

The Second Reading

Hebrews 10:11-25

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, “This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds,” he also adds, “I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.” Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin. Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

At the conclusion the People respond, “Thanks be to God.”

Please stand and sing

Gradual Hymn 596 Judge Eternal, Throned in Splendor

Hymnal 1982

The Gospel is carried to the congregation so that we remember it is our Good News to hear and to share.

The Gospel Reading

Mark 13:1-8

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.” When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birthpangs.”

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Once the Book of Gospels has returned to its place of honor, the People may be seated at the invitation of the preacher.

The Nicene Creed

Celebrant Let us declare our faith in God:

People We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Gathered by the Holy Spirit and renewed in the Word, let us pray to God for the needs of the world.

Gracious God, we offer thanks and praise for all the blessings of our lives; for family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us; for the wonder of life and the mystery of love. We thank you for your whole creation, so beautiful and bounteous, given for us to share, to preserve and protect. We are your stewards, O God.

Lead us in your love.

Give your wisdom to the leaders of the nations, especially our president, Joe, and president-elect, Donald, that there may be peace and provision for all people. We pray for nations and neighbors at war or in conflict, for victims of violence, people in poverty, and all who search for safety. Give your blessing to all veterans and for those who serve now; for peace in our nation, our region, and the City of Wilmington. Hold us together in your great goodness. We want your peace, O God.

Lead us in your love.

We thank you for giving the Church your Spirit's power. We pray for Sean, our presiding bishop, and for Kevin, our bishop. We give thanks for our parish ministries and our outreach partner, N. Strengthen, bless, and guide us to make Jesus known by word and example. We are your Church, O God.

Lead us in your love.

Awaken our hearts to your presence in all people—in those familiar to us and those who are different from us. Teach us to use our talents to welcome and bless all your children. We are made in your image, O God.

Lead us in your love.

Lord, comfort and strengthen those in any need or trouble. We pray for those who are sick in body, mind, or spirit, for those who have asked our prayers, especially N., and those we name now [aloud or silently, we offer intentions]. Let them discover your love through the care and support of others. We are your children, O God.

Lead us in your love.

We pray for those who have died, especially N., and loved ones we remember, N. May they surround your heavenly throne in glory and may those who grieve find peace and strength in you. In you alone we have eternal life, O God.

Lead us in your love.

Celebrant God of grace, as you are ever at work in your creation, so fulfill your wise and loving purpose in us and in all for whom we pray, that with them and in all that you have made, your glory may be revealed and the whole earth give praise to you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession of Sin

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

People Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant declares the absolution.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

Please be seated as those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries this month stand to be recognized; then all say

People O God, our times are in your hand:

Look with favor, we pray, on your servants as they begin another year.

Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

People And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory and Preparation of the Table

Being seated, we begin with a time of offering. Giving money is a sign that our life serves God's purposes and expresses our gratitude for God's many blessings. The ushers will receive the offering and present it on our behalf. Also, you may give online or text a contribution to (302) 244-5368. For those who give electronically, a card is available in the pews to participate in the act of offering. Newcomers and guests may place the welcome card in the offering plate.

Anthem

Robert W. Lehman (b. 1960)

I will arise and go to Jesus, He will embrace me in His arms;
In the arms of my dear Savior, O there are ten thousand charms.
Come, ye sinners, poor and needy, weak and wounded, sick and sore;
Jesus ready stands to save you, full of pity, love and power.
Come, ye thirsty, come, and welcome, God's free bounty glorify;
True belief and true repentance, every grace that brings you nigh.
Come, ye weary, heavy laden, lost and ruined by the fall;
If you tarry till you're better, you will never come at all.
Let not conscience make you linger, not of fitness fondly dream;
All the fitness He requireth is to feel your need of Him.

Please stand and sing

CHRIST CHURCH CHRISTIANA HUNDRED

NOVEMBER 17, 2024

IN THE SEASON OF PENTECOST

THIS WEEK WE LIFT UP..

OUR CREATIONS CARE MINISTRY. Christ Church's Creations Care Ministry leads our church and our community in caring for our planet by educating and implementing visible, sustainable ways of maximizing our natural resources and minimizing our carbon footprint through reducing, reusing, and recycling. Last month, they hosted our second flexible plastics collection event here at Christ Church to benefit Bags2Mats for the Homeless. This statewide program turns plastic material into plarn (plastic yarn), and volunteers crochet the plarn into mats for the homeless. In addition, they organized the planting of a native and pollinator plant border around the outside of our labyrinth wall with the help of some of our parishioners. To view photos from these events, visit our Facebook page. For more information on this ministry, please contact Eda Ross Montgomery or call the parish office at (302) 655-3379.

TODAY AT CHRIST CHURCH CELEBRATE FRIENDSGIVING

Join us for an expanded Coffee & Community hosted by our Parish Fellowship Ministry today, November 17. Come enjoy sweets and treats with a fall flavor and a fun craft activity for the kids at 9:30 AM in the Parish Halls as we give thanks for each other and for all of God's blessings. No faith formation classes will meet during this time, so all ages can participate in this intergenerational event.
